House prices set to rocket by 41 per cent

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

PROPERTY prices in Luton will rocket over the next five years, experts are predicting.

A study released by property company RightMove and Oxford Economics expects property prices in the town to increase by 41 per cent.

The study ranks Luton as second in England and Wales for house price increase, almost keeping pace with Southampton, which is predicted to rise by 42.9 per cent and level with trendy seaside town of Brighton.

Luton's figure is well above the national expected increase of 30 per cent and the 37 per cent expected in the East of England - Luton's region.

The current market price for a three bedroom, semi-detached family home in Luton is around £185,000, which stands to increase to just over £260,000 if the predictions prove to be accurate.

Commenting on the figures, Richard Yusuf, regional manager for Taylors Estate Agents said: "There is definitely a demand for

PROPERTY BOOM: Prices in Luton are predicted to jump by 40 per cent properties in Luton coming out of London, which is probably the main factor in this.

"It will be due to people moving from London as a result of wanting to release equity and also commuters looking to get on the property ladder who are priced out of London.

"Luton is a prime location for the London commute and is excellently linked, with train stations at Leagrave, Parkway and in the centre of the town."

On how it will affect people in Luton, Mr Yusuf said: "It's bad news for the first time buyers of the next generation due to the increase in prices, but it's only good news for current homeowners.

"It could also see an increase in homeowners who want to get on the ladder before they are priced out.

"If house prices rise, it follows that the town's economy will also get a boost, which is a positive for the town and its people."

The economy of the town is already expected to improve with the Luton Airport expansion plan underway, which would double its capacity and create 5,000 new jobs over the next 12 years.

Other major projects include improvements to M1 motorway junctions near Luton.

Mr Yusuf added: "It's good news for Luton in terms of catching up with the surrounding areas.

"For a while we've been trailing towns such as Harpenden, Hemel Hempstead and Oxford and it's about time we caught up with them."

Malcolm's hobby to help charity fundraiser

FORMER lorry driver Malcolm Patrick is turning his hobby for making glassware into a fundraiser for charity.

Cancer sufferer Malcolm, aged 66, attends the palliative care centre at Keech Hospice. And when he heard that Keech was organising a Makers Market, he wanted to get involved.

So he will be selling some of the glassware he makes at the market being held at Barnfield College, New Bedford Road, next Saturday and Sunday (November 1-2).

Malcolm, of Nappsbury Road, said:

"I wanted to give back to the place that has helped me with my condition.

"I will be donating the money that I raise at the Keech Makers Market back to the hospice so that other people who are in the same situation as myself also have a place to go when they are in need."

Outsourcing services is 'doomed to failure'

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE DECISION to outsource the cleaning and catering services at Luton and Dunstable (L&D) Hospital has been met with anger by local representatives of UNISON.

Of particular concern to the union is the increase in costs to the hospital and a possible repeat of when the services were last outsourced, only for them to have to bring them back in house after problems.

Paul O'Brien, UNISON Branch Secretary at the Trust, said: "Considering both the cleaning and catering departments have been underfunded for such a long time, they have managed to do an excellent job in maintaining the standards that are expected of them."

"I don't understand what they hope to achieve by outsourcing both departments, especially as the NHS Hospital Trust has admitted that it would actually cost them more money for an outside company to run the catering department than it would to fund the developments themselves and to run the service in-house."

"I am very concerned that this process is doomed to be an expensive failure and I do seriously question as to whether the Trust has actually learnt from its past mistakes."

A spokesman for Luton and Dunstable Hospital said: "Outsourcing will have the benefits of greater flexibility."

"For example, it will allow for the provision of hot meals when patients are admitted into hospital outside daytime hours."

"It will also enable the freeing up of existing space for clinical use and the investment of additional capital into better catering and cleaning equipment."

"Over the last ten months we have had several open discussions with staff and patients to identify any concerns and to help prepare the service specification for the new supplier."

"All permanent employees, including permanent part-time employees, who are employed by the L&D at the start of the commercial contract will be transferred under legislation and retain their individual terms and conditions of employment, including their NHS pension."

The L&D Hospital has commenced the initial stages of the process of outsourcing but is yet to select a partner to provide the services.

Kindles donated to junior school by Amazon

A LUTON school has received a donation of Kindles and a £2,000 gift card from Amazon to give the pupils new books to read in the classroom and libraries.

A total of 25 e-Readers have been donated to Farley Hill Junior School by the Amazon centre based at Marston Gate, near Luton, which the kids received on Monday (Oct 20).

David Bradshaw, Associate Headteacher at Farley Junior, said: "We are extremely grateful to Amazon for this kind donation."

"The Kindles will be a vital addition to our resources, especially as reading remains a key priority for the school. The children are very excited about using the Kindles in the class, which we are sure will help foster a love of literature."

Ashley Cowan, General Manager at Marston Gate, said: "At Amazon we love reading and we are delighted to be able to provide Kindles to local schools."

"Employees were all involved in selecting the schools and it's great to see such a fantastic response from the children."

STRANGE REQUESTS BY GUESTS

A HOTEL in Luton has revealed some of the stranger requests it has received by guests over the last 12 months. Luton Travelodge employees received the following requests:

- Can my boss be dropped off via helicopter?
- If it's sunny in the morning, could someone text me to get up and go for a run?
- How high is your bed exactly to the millimetre? I want to get one the same height.
- Can you read me a bedtime story?

Shakila Ahmed from Travelodge said: "Our hotel teams will always try their best to accommodate customer requests but there are just some requests that we just can't help with, such as changing the weather or counting the stars in the sky!"

POLICE PROBE FIREWORK ATTACK

POLICE have launched an investigation after a firework was pushed through a letter box of a property in Wardown Crescent at around 10pm on Tuesday, October 14. The alarm was raised when the 52-year-old resident noticed smoke in the hall of her home. Damage was contained to scorch marks on the hall carpet. PC Ian Bambridge said: "If the fire had gone unnoticed then the consequences could have been dire."

Anyone with information can contact PC Bambridge, in confidence, at Bedfordshire Police on 101, or text information to 07786 200011. Alternatively you can contact the independent crime fighting charity, Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Boys come in peace to remember WWI

TWO pupils from Stopsley High School are doing their bit to commemorate the centenary of the First World War by launching a charity initiative to raise money for Help for Heroes and The Royal British Legion.

Harry Crouch, 14, and Harrison Barrett, 13, hope to raise nearly £1,500 to be split between the charities by selling bags of Jelly Babies, or, in this case, Peace Babies as part of their Duke of Edinburgh bronze award.

Harry said: "We found out that Jelly Babies used to be called Peace Babies after the end of World War One on a trip to Wardown Park Museum for a school history project. That is where we got the idea from," added Harry.

So far the boys have received more than 15,000 Jelly Babies donated by local businesses such as Bookers, Co-op and Sainsbury's.

They will sell them in packs of 11, marking the end of the war at 11am on November 11, 1918, for £1 a bag.

They made their first sales at the Vauxhall offices on Friday and this coming Friday and Saturday they will be selling them at the IBC open day.

The weekend after that they will be on sale at two Asda stores.

On Saturday, November 8 they will be at the Wigmore store and the following day at the Dunstable shop.

Housing plan nears final approval stage

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A PLAN to create 31,000 new homes and 27,000 jobs in Central Bedfordshire has been submitted to The Secretary of State for Communities and Local Government, Eric Pickles.

If the plans go through, it will mean a large number of new properties being built on the Woodside Link, near Houghton Regis and on land to the north of Luton and Sundon.

The submission comes after three years of consultation, in three stages, which has seen thousands of people have their voices heard on the issue.

Councillor Nigel Young, executive member for regeneration, said: "This plan affects every person living in and around Central Bedfordshire and I am grateful to everyone who has taken time to give their views on our plans throughout this process."

"Factoring in the needs of our varying communities and striking the right balance between promoting

ERIC PICKLES: Plans have been submitted growth and protecting our area's character has been challenging, but I am confident that we have a plan that sets us on the right course for meeting housing and employment needs and creating thriving communities."

The most recent consultation took place over the summer and invited residents to give feedback on the final plan.

This feedback, along with evidence from the council on the strategy will be considered by an independent planning inspector.

The inspector is appointed by the Secretary of State and decides ultimately whether the plans go ahead.

A public examination is expected to be held next spring.

After the examination hearings, the planning inspector will issue a report setting out their conclusions and identify whether the plan is 'sound' or needs any changes.

If the plan is considered to be 'sound', the council will be asked to adopt the strategy.

Cllr Young added: "I hope that the public examination process will find our plan to be robust and that by next year we will have an adopted strategy to ensure developments meet the principles and standards we have set and to guard against 'hostile' developments that go against our plans."

If you have any queries about the development strategy you can email LDF@centralbedfordshire.gov.uk or call 0300 300 4353.

Muslim girls get in the red as Arsenal VIPs

THE Luton-based initiative 'From Headscarves to Football Scarves' went on a trip to Arsenal's Emirates Stadium last Saturday.

Organiser of the event, Butch Fazal, said: "It was superb, we had a great time and the girls were blown away by being pitchside."

The group has big plans for the future, not just limited to more stadium trips for Luton girls.

Mr Fazal added: "It gives us a platform to build on."

"It's great that these young Muslim women from Luton have the chance to go and watch football across the country, but ideally we want people from all over the UK to get involved in the project with the girls from Luton acting as ambassadors."

Girl, 13, attacked in shopping centre

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

POLICE are appealing for witnesses to come forward after a 13-year-old girl was attacked by two adults in the Quadrant Shopping Centre in Dunstable.

The incident happened on Friday, October 17 sometime between 8.30pm and 9pm when the victim was riding her bike in the centre.

The teen was approached by a fellow school pupil, who she had previously had a dispute with, and a woman who grabbed her by both arms, making threats.

A few moments later, a man arrived in a car, approached the victim and seized her in a headlock causing injury to her neck. The youngster was able to escape and made her way home before the police were called.

The first offender was a white woman, 35 to 40 years old, with dark brown hair and a side fringe. She was wearing an Adidas top, skinny jeans, trainers and was described as having muscular legs.

The second offender was a white man, 40 years old, around 5ft 11ins tall, of a slim build and clean shaven.

He was wearing a black beanie hat and a long sleeved, skin tight training top.

The offender arrived in a small blue car – possibly a Renault.

PC Lee-Anne Pogson, who is investigating the incident, is keen to hear from anyone who was in the area and may have witnessed the assault taking place. She is particularly keen to hear from a group of individuals who were spotted on CCTV all watching what was believed to have been the incident.

Anyone with information can contact PC Pogson, in confidence, at Bedfordshire Police on 101.

Whipsnade set for haunted Halloween

ANIMALS at Whipsnade Zoo are getting into the spooky spirit ahead of Halloween later this week.

The ghoulish goodies are all part of the zoo's enrichment programme, which stimulates the creatures' natural behaviours as they forage for food.

However, there's not just a host of activities for the animals this half-term week, visitors can enjoy spooky seasonal attractions including pumpkin carving and a ghost hunt. See p44.

Homes targeted in spate of burglaries

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

POLICE are looking for information after a number of properties in the Bramingham Road area of Luton were burgled on Wednesday night.

The offences took place between 10.30pm and 3.30am over Wednesday evening into Thursday morning.

A property and a shed were also targeted by offenders in Verulam Gardens while a burglary took place in Gooseberry Hill where a yellow Vauxhall Vivaro LX van was stolen.

The stolen van was later recovered after being involved in a collision in Welmor Road.

A further burglary took place in Tiberious Road.

Officers have arrested one man in relation to these incidents but are keen to hear from any members of the public who were in the Bramingham Road area and may have seen anything suspicious.

They would also like to hear from anyone else who may have been the target or victim of a burglary or shed break-in.

Anyone with information can contact Detective Sergeant Chris Hutton, in confidence, at Bedfordshire Police on 01582 394095, or text information to 07786 200011.

Alternatively you can contact the independent crime-fighting charity, Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Tom Bliss feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Tom is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success.

'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Tom a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Man found guilty of assaulting stranger

BY JULIA SUTTON

editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN has been jailed for 12 months after a jury cleared him of robbing a stranger, but found him guilty of assault.

Daniel Copeland, 23, denied the charge of robbery at the start of his trial this week at Luton Crown Court.

The attack happened just after 10pm on March 29 this year when Clive Walker left his home in Studley Road, Luton, to visit some nearby shops. The jury were told that where Studley Road meets Biscot Road, Mr Walker saw the defendant, who he didn't know, talking to a prostitute.

Mr Walker told the court that as he made his way past them, Copeland, who lived in a flat in nearby Malzeard Road, called after him. He told how after catching up with him, the defendant punched him in the face and the head, knocking him out.

When he came round he was being helped by a good Samaritan, but £20 in cash and a gold chain was missing.

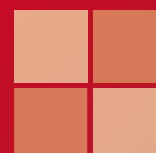

During the trial the jury were told that a second alternative charge against Copeland was being added of assault occasioning actual bodily harm on Mr Walker.

On Wednesday Copeland was acquitted of the robbery but found guilty of the assault and jailed for 12 months.

Thanks to all who helped

SIR – On behalf of Arthritis Research UK and people living with arthritis I would like to thank everyone who became a Pain Killer during National Arthritis Week (October 12-19).

Arthritis holds 10 million people in the grip of excruciating pain, including myself. It affects people of all ages.

The pain of arthritis can make everyday tasks extremely difficult. My husband helps me shower, get dressed and helps with the cooking. I can no longer do the things I used to love and at 34 it's hard to come to terms with it. I'm proud to support Arthritis Research UK as they are dedicated to stopping the devastating impact that arthritis has on people's lives by funding life-changing research.

I'm certain that one day they will find a cure and people with arthritis, like me, won't have to live with this invisible pain. However, the charity's work will not be possible without the public's continued support.

National Arthritis Week may be over but if you live with arthritis like me, there's still time to fill out the National Arthritis Survey which will help the charity understand the disease and its effects on people's everyday lives. You can also read and share their information on living with pain, or host a fundraising event. Find out more at: www.nationalarthritisweek.org

It's about time for a facelift

SIR – I have previously commented on the state of some of the buildings that greet visitors coming off the train at Luton.

There is a brand new car park but an outdated train station, which is not down to Luton Borough Council, but surely they must have some sort of say about the state of the building.

Then there is the new student accommodation, some of which looks like Lego and of course, the Busway. I wonder what visitors think about this? But even more, what do they think about the back of Luton Town Football Club?

The old advertising hoardings are really bad. There's only old paper hung up there.

They must belong to someone. Surely they could be used to advertise forthcoming games.

But the whole back needs a facelift, it just looks as if the place is derelict.

Luton won the league last year and they could do something to the outside of the ground with the money from that.

Everybody keeps banging on about how the football club brings trade and shopping to the area, but it's not much of an advert when they see what is on offer as they travel down the Busway or along Hatters Way.

AD Currant,
Wensleydale, Luton

Keep hedgehogs safe

SIR – With bonfire night and Halloween fast approaching, the British Hedgehog Preservation Society (BHPS) urges that bonfires should not be built until the day they are to be lit to save hedgehogs and other wildlife from appalling suffering.

This will not only save wildlife from burning to death but will also stop the bonfire from getting soaked should it rain the night before!

If a large bonfire has to be built in advance, protect it whilst building by putting some chicken wire one metre high, all the way around the bottom. This should be held in place with stakes and the wire should slope outwards at an angle to make it difficult to climb, as hedgehogs are good climbers!

If, whilst building, a bonfire is left unattended, for however short a time; it's imperative to check for young children, hedgehogs and other animals, including family pets, before lighting. As hedgehogs tend to hide in the centre and bottom two feet of the bonfire, check by gently lifting the bonfire section by section with a pole or broom. Never use a spade or fork as these can stab them.

For free advice and information on hedgehogs, contact the BHPS on 01584 890 801 or see our website at www.britishhedgehogs.org.uk

Well done to the Hatters

SIR – I just wanted to say well done to Luton Town after a great run of results recently.

Six wins on the bounce after the 3-1 against Dagenham and Redbridge on Tuesday night sets us up nicely.

Obviously it's way too early to start talking about promotion, but nevertheless the results are very encouraging.

Well done to the team and also well done to the manager John Still and his staff.

LAST week I made facetious remarks about Children in Need. Some people pulled me up on it and said it is too important to joke about. They are right.

As figures showed last week deprivation, and particularly child poverty, is getting worse in this country. And not least in Luton and Bedford. And all political parties and all forms of Government, national and local, share the blame. Instead of eradicating child poverty, it is getting worse.

I said to a local politician last month that we could be the last generation for a century or more, that expected to be better off than our parents: decent jobs, with decent pay and conditions, our own home and a good pension.

He said I was talking rubbish. It is true, though. And those that are well off are pulling up the drawbridge, some in gated communities, quite literally.

Children in need as poverty grows

Apart from the immorality of this, it makes no sense, economically, socially or in terms of personal freedom.

As the Ebola virus has graphically demonstrated, gated communes can only take you so far in terms of personal protection.

Perhaps this is the moment, or maybe next May when every party loses the election, or at least none win it, for them all to come together, to work out how to resolve issues such as poverty, the NHS and education for a generation.

It could be a great opportunity to make failure and popular discontent into statesmanlike success. Then they can get back to bickering over the EU.

TALKING of Ebola, could we perhaps inject a little reality and commonsense into what is happening and the risk for this country.

Apart from last week's tale about a father wanting his daughter to wear a mask at school, I have heard young children talking in hushed, terrified tones of what might happen if it reaches these shores. I know the press is partly to blame but children in Britain are still at much greater risk travelling to and from school each day than from dying of Ebola.

STRIKE: Radiographers and sonographers on Monday

RADIOGRAPHERS went on strike outside Luton and Dunstable Hospital on Monday as part of a national action.

Heather Waller, industrial representative for the union, the Society of Radiographers, said on the strike: "It's the first time we've gone on strike in 30 years, with both radiographers and sonographers taking part."

The union voted for national industrial action and will also be taking part in a national campaign for better pay for public sector workers.

Students targeted in 'linked' robberies

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

POLICE are appealing for information after two students were targeted by robbers in incidents they believe could be connected.

The first incident happened at 9pm on Thursday, October 16 as a 20-year-old student was in the car park under the flyover in Park Street, Luton.

A man approached the victim and demanded he hand over his mobile.

The victim offered the offender his bank card before being forced to go to an ATM.

Once outside the Hatters Public House the victim managed to get away without handing over any property.

The offender is described as a white man, between 25 and 30 years old, of a slim build, 5ft 8 tall and wearing a grey hooded top.

A further robbery was reported at 9.30pm on the same day when an 18-year-old student was threatened at knifepoint in Dumfries Street. This time the offender got away with a HTC Desire X mobile phone.

The offender is described as a white man, about 5ft 9 tall, of a slim build, with short black hair and stubble on his face.

He was wearing a dark hooded top, dark jeans and training shoes.

Anyone who has any information relating to these offences should call Bedfordshire Police on 101.

THE NOMINATIONS for the Luton's Best Awards 2014 will shut at the close of play tomorrow (Monday) – so this is your last chance to put forward the name of a deserving person or group in the town.

The fifth annual edition of the awards, organised by Love Luton, honour outstanding achievements from people, groups and organisations across Luton.

These people are often unsung heroes who willingly give up their time to help others and contribute to our community.

The Luton's Best awards are a way to thank these people for their outstanding efforts.

Shortlisted nominees will be invited to the glittering awards evening at The Luton Hoo Hotel on Friday, November 28.

The categories for this year are as follows:

- Young Achiever (sponsored by Barnfield Federation)
- Adult Achiever (sponsored by the University of Bedfordshire)
- Service with a Smile (sponsored by Arriva plc)

There is just over a day left to make your nominations for this year's Luton's Best Awards. NICK SMITH explains how to enter a local hero for one of the categories

- Community Company of the Year (sponsored by The Mall)
- Child of Courage (sponsored by FCC Environment)
- Lifetime Achievement (sponsored by Volker Highways)
- Care in the Community (sponsored by Gulfstream)
- Community Project (sponsored by London Luton Airport)
- Keeping Luton Safe (sponsored by Bedfordshire & Luton Fire & Rescue Service)
- Environmental Achievement (sponsored by Vauxhall Motors)
- Best Volunteer (sponsored by Signature Flight Support)
- Community Businessperson (sponsored by Taylor Walton)
- Best Fundraiser (sponsored by Basepoint)
- Luton in Harmony (sponsored by AUGUR)
- Lutonian of the Year (sponsored by easyJet)

DOING THEIR BIT: Kids add their donations to the 'bank'

Food for thought for nursery pupils

CHILDREN at Grasmere Nursery School have done their bit for Luton Foodbank by making donations to the charity as part of their harvest festival.

Luton Foodbank has been appealing to schools across the borough to donate to their cause at this time of year, hosting assemblies across Luton to raise awareness of the work they do in the community.

The scheme was formed last year in response to welfare cuts, to help the poorest people in the town.

No jail term over 'cleaver threats'

BY JULIA SUTTON

editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A PARKING row outside two takeaway shops prompted a disgruntled man to arm himself with meat cleavers.

The events took place at 6pm on July 11 this year, when customers went into Peri Peri Palace in Houghton Parade, Dunstable, but parked in front of The Rice Bowl next door.

Tatman Cheng asked them twice to move the car, banged on the bonnet and approached them with two meat cleavers.

During a struggle to restrain him, one man had his wrist nicked by one of the knives.

A judge said the men who were threatened had taken a 'merciful' stance and thought Cheng needed help rather than punishment.

Recorder Patrick Fields told the 62-year-old defendant he was going to suspend the jail sentence given Cheng's age and good character and the attitude of the victims. Cheng, of Marsh Road, Luton, pleaded guilty to using threatening words and behaviour and possessing a bladed article in public.

He was given a nine month suspended sentence with £150 costs and a £100 victim surcharge at Luton Crown Court.

Aurindam Majumdar, defending said: "He was under stress at the time and had some underlying psychological problems for which he is now having help."

Ministerial role has meant new priorities

It's nearly three months since I was appointed as Minister for Prisons, Probation and Rehabilitation.

It is a huge privilege and has meant that I have had to reorder my priorities. I am now only able to work on my constituency responsibilities and my ministerial role.

For now, I have had to put the very many other issues, (like strengthening families, combating modern slavery, standing up for Christians and others persecuted around the world in the Middle East and in countries like North Korea and the reorganisation of orthopaedics and improvement of care for veterans) which I care passionately about and have campaigned on for so long, on the back burner. It also means that I can only speak in the House of Commons on matters relating to prisons, probation and rehabilitation. I can of course, write to ministers in all departments about all these issues though. All those constituents who watch Prime Minister's Questions regularly will no longer see me rising in my place to catch the Speaker's eye in the way I did in the past. I will continue to attend Prime Minister's Questions though as it is such a key event.

Andrew Selous, MP for South West Bedfordshire, on his first months as Minister for Prisons, Probation and Rehabilitation

I want to say how much I value the incredible work which prison and probation staff do up and down our country. Prison officers and probation staff are often not the first people who come to mind when we think of public servants. The work they do, however, is absolutely vital to keep the public safe and it gives me enormous pleasure to be able to pay tribute to their incredible work.

I have been incredibly well supported by the civil servants I have the privilege to work alongside in the Ministry of Justice. They are dedicated, professional, highly intelligent and committed to keeping the public safe through a well-functioning criminal justice system.

I am very conscious however that I am only able to serve as a minister because I am first and foremost a constituency MP. I am still working in South West Bedfordshire most Fridays and have been able to spend some additional days working locally over the summer when I have not been needed in the Ministry of Justice. So I have been able to continue to visit local schools, NHS staff, businesses and other local groups. This week I have had the privilege of spending time with ambulance crews in Leighton Buzzard and I also went out with an ambulance crew on one of their shifts last week. I have nothing but the highest admiration for the work they do and the care, professionalism and good humour with which they do it. I also managed to visit two schools this week and was honoured to speak at the awards evening at All Saints Academy. It was wonderful to see the progress which All Saints has made and to see what a popular local school it is becoming.

The Hobbit: Battle of Five Armies – Dec 12th

The third instalment of The Hobbit trilogy brings an epic conclusion to the journey of Bilbo Baggins and the Company of Dwarves, as they take on the ruthless dragon Smaug.

After taking back their homeland, the enraged dragon unleashes his rage on the defenceless Lake-town as Thorin becomes obsessed with hoarding his reclaimed treasure. As Thorin sacrifices his honour and his friends, Bilbo is forced to make a drastic choice after his desperate attempts at reason fail.

But other dangers are lurking as Sauron sends legions of Orcs to attack the Lonely Mountain, forcing the Dwarves, Elves and Men to decide to unite or die. As the Battle of the Five Armies rages Bilbo must fight to save not only his own life, but the lives of his friends and all of Middle Earth.

Unbroken – Dec 25th

Angelina Jolie directs this epic drama that follows the incredible true story of Olympian and war hero Luis Zamperini. Zamperini survived in a life raft for 47 days after a plane crash during World War II, only to be captured by the Japanese Navy and sent to a prisoner of war camp.

Night at the Museum:

Secret of the Tomb – Dec 19th

Ben Stiller returns as watchman Larry as he travels the globe to save the magic of The Tablet of Ahkmenrah before it's disappears. Uniting characters old and new, Night at the Museum 3 stars Robin Williams, Ben Kingsley, Owen Wilson, Steve Coogan and Ricky Gervais in the museum's wildest adventure yet.

Dumb and Dumber To – Dec 19th

Jim Carey and Jeff Daniels are back as loveable idiots Lloyd and Harry twenty years on from their last adventure. After Lloyd reveals his long standing prank to Harry, the dim-witted duo head out to find Harry's long lost daughter as Lloyd falls in love again.

Exodus: Gods and Kings – Dec 26th

Ridley Scott adapts the Old Testament Book of Exodus in this epic adventure as one man dares to take on the strength of an entire empire. Leader Moses, played by Christian Bale, rises up against Egyptian Pharaoh Ramses and sets thousands of slaves on a journey to escape Egypt and its cycle of deadly plagues.

The Interview – Oct 29th

James Franco and Seth Rogen star as Dave Skylark and his producer Aaron Rapoport in this action-comedy. The duo run celebrity TV show 'Skylark Tonight' and soon land an interview with Kim Jong-Un. As the pair gets ready to travel to Pyongyang, they're recruited by the CIA to assassinate Kim Jong-Un. What could go wrong?

Hunger Games Mockingjay Part 1 – Nov 20th

Jennifer Lawrence returns as Katniss Everdeen in the latest instalment of the Hunger Games. In District 13 Katniss has shattered the Hunger Games forever as she fights to save Peeta and an entire nation inspired by her courage.

Horrible Bosses 2 – Nov 28th

Jason Bateman, Charlie Day and Jason Sudeikis return as average working men Nick, Dale and Kurt who decide to set up their own business. But things don't go to plan as an investor tries to take them down, prompting a crazy kidnap plot and blackmail in an attempt to take back their business. Jennifer Aniston, Jamie Foxx and Kevin Spacey reprise their roles alongside Chris Pine and Oscar Waltz as the latest obstacles standing between the trio and their success.

Horns – Oct 29th

The supernatural thriller stars Daniel Radcliffe as Ig Perrish, the number one suspect in his girlfriend's rape and murder. Waking up hung over Ig finds he's grown horns that have the power to make people confess to their sins, a useful tool as he hunts down the true killers of his girlfriend Merrin.

The Imitation Game – Nov 14th

Benedict Cumberbatch stars as famous mathematician, cryptologist and code breaker Alan Turing in his quest to crack the German Enigma Code during World War II at Bletchley Park. The film follows Turing's life from the unhappy years spent at boarding school, the triumphs of his secret wartime work and the tragedy of his prosecution in 1952 for homosexual acts.

Paddington – Nov 30th

From darkest Peru a young bear travels to a London in search of a home, but soon finds himself lost and alone. Just as he begins to think city life is not all it's cracked up to be, he meets the Brown family who take him in after reading his label: "Please look after this bear. Thank you." But a museum taxidermist soon spots the rarest of bears...

WIN Tickets to see Robin Hood and the Babes in the Wood at Dunstable's Grove Theatre

WITH Christmas getting ever closer, we are giving away a family ticket (for two adults and two children) to a performance of Robin Hood and the Babes in the Wood on Saturday, December 13!

This is the story of an evil baddie and a hero...in tights. The Sheriff of Nottingham is spreading misery throughout Sherwood Forest forcing taxes onto the locals as part of his wicked scheme to take the Crown of England. What they need is a hero, but will Robin Hood hit the mark?

This year's pantomime sees the biggest line up yet with a host of stars set to take the stage. Legendary soap star Alan Fletcher, Neighbours' Dr Karl Kennedy) is flying half way across the world to play the wicked Sheriff of Nottingham over the festive period. Alan will be joined by the UK's favourite ventriloquist Steve Hewlett, who won Britain's Got Talent in 2013. X Factor singing sensation and West End star Andy Abraham also joins the line up along with BRIT awarding winning Anna Kumble, known as 90's pop star Lolly.

To be in with a chance of winning just email your name and daytime 'phone number to: nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk with the subject line 'Panto competition'.

The competition closes at noon on Monday, November 3 and the editor's decision is final.

Santa Brownies

Ok, we'll admit it: we cheated a little. Although using a pre-packaged brownie mix won't earn you too many points in the Great British Bakeoff tent, turning to Betty Crocker or her associates will save you time over the hectic festive period. These cute bites are simple to whip up for unannounced guests, but look impressive enough to take along to a party. And why not earn a few points with Santa by leaving one out for him on Christmas Eve?

Method:

1. Follow the instructions provided by the manufacturer to bake your brownies. Allow the tray to cool before shaping the cakes into rounds using a cookie cutter. Aim to get between 12 and 16 circles.
2. Beat the butter and mascarpone cheese together until light and creamy. Mix in the vanilla extract and salt, before adding the icing sugar a little at a time. Continue to beat the ingredients together. A little more icing sugar might be required in order to achieve a consistency that's stiff enough for it not to run off the top of the brownies.
3. Pipe a ring of buttercream on to the top of each brownie round. Alternatively, use a teaspoon to neatly apply a medium-thick layer.
4. Cut off the strawberry leaves, and push the flat base of each fruit on to an iced brownie.
5. To finish, add a daub of buttercream to the tip of each strawberry.

This recipe will make 12-16 brownies.

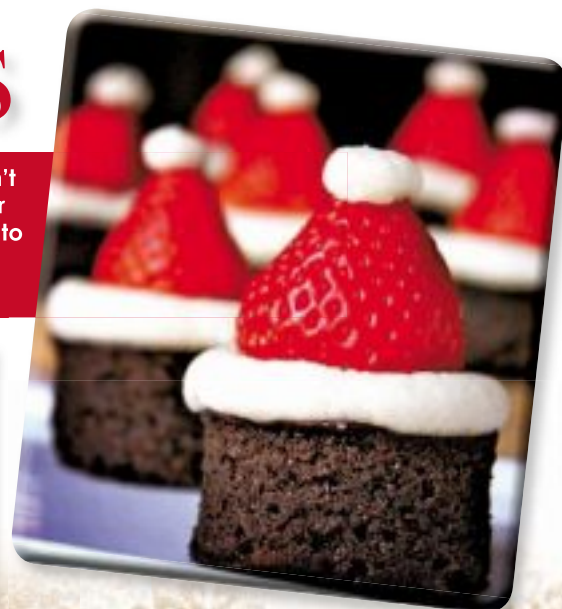

You will need:

A packet of chocolate brownie mix
(Read the directions on the box to see whether you will need to add any other ingredients to the batter. Individual brands may differ but most require an egg, oil and water.)

12-16 small strawberries

For the vanilla mascarpone buttercream:

115g of unsalted butter
115g mascarpone cheese
385g icing sugar
2 tsp vanilla extract
A pinch of salt

Fig jam, Stilton and candied walnut puff pastry bites

One of the nicest things about the festive period - side-line the presents for a moment - is getting together with old friends. These smart bites are the perfect accompaniment to a glass of mulled wine and a much-needed catch up. And with the recipe yielding 72 miniature pastries, there's no excuse not to have everyone over.

Method:

1. Preheat the oven to 220 degrees Celsius/gas mark seven. Line a large baking tray with grease-proof paper.
2. Lightly flour the worktop, and roll out the sheet of pastry. Cut the puff into three centimetre rounds using a cookie cutter, and transfer these onto the tray.
3. Whisk the egg yolk with a teaspoon of water, and brush each pastry lightly with the wash.
4. Place the pastries into the middle of the oven, and bake for 10 to 12 minutes until they are risen and golden in colour. Allow them to cool on a wire rack.
5. In a saucepan, bring the figs, water and rosemary to the boil. Lower the stove temperature until the solution simmers and stir frequently until the liquid reduces to a tablespoon's amount. Take the pan from the heat and add the chopped garlic, olive oil, Balsamic vinegar. Season to taste.
6. Transfer the fig mixture to a small bowl. Use a hand mixer to blend the figs until they are of a jam-like consistency.
7. Melt the butter in a small pan and stir in the brown sugar. Add the walnuts and cayenne pepper. Fry lightly, adding a teaspoon of water whilst stirring regularly. After 10 minutes, transfer the glazed nuts on to parchment paper.

8. Using a small teaspoon spread the fig jam on top of the pastries. Dot on a small piece of Stilton, and add a candied walnut to garnish.

You will need:

A packet of shop-bought puff pastry
110g dried figs
¼ tsp dried rosemary or thyme
120ml water
1 tbs olive oil
1 ½ tsp Balsamic vinegar
A clove of garlic
135g Stilton cheese
30g chopped walnuts
½ tbs butter
½ tbs light brown sugar
Pinch of ground cayenne pepper
1 tsp water
1 egg yolk

Christmas 2014

CHRISTMAS wouldn't be Christmas without panto

It's panto time again (hurrah!) and that means jokes. Terrible jokes. Jokes that, in any other situation, would be booed off the stage (hiss!).

But with the festive season comes all sorts of silliness. Grown men squeeze themselves into frocks and too much make-up and girls dress as boys; the kind that wear tights, high-heeled boots and jaunty little caps with feathers in them. Thank goodness it only comes once a year and then it's behind you. Oh no it isn't!!

Oh, yes it jolly well is.

But until the last sweetie has been hurled into the auditorium; 'til the prince and princess have vowed to live happily ever after; 'til the final curtain has come down, then theatres, the length and breadth of the country, will resound to the screams and yells of excited children and their increasingly exhausted accompanying adults.

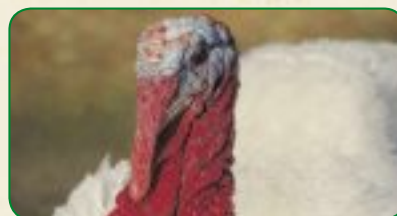

Oh come on Mr. Scrooge. It may be the one time in the year when you go to the theatre but it's worth the wait. You just have to witness the expression on the faces of children who have never seen a live show before as the curtain rises. It's a truly magical experience; one that will stay with them forever.

And it really is such fun! Oh, yes it is!

Christmas 2014

Switch on to the season of goodwill

Christmas is a magical time of the year and residents in Luton can join in the festivities early in December when the town's Christmas lights are switched on LUTON will be bathed in the warm glow of Christmas on Saturday, December 6 when the official festive lights are switched on. Luton council has already begun making arrangements for the big day which is expected to attract thousands to the town centre for what promises to be a fun-filled family event.

Along with the switch on there will also be a craft and a gift fair in St George's Square. The annual Choirs Aloud competition is also running alongside the craft and gift fair, and entries are being encouraged from choirs of all ages.

Last year, thousands of people packed the streets as they took part in the fun fair, ice rink and other events.

The cast of the Dick Whittington pantomime, which was on the Grove Theatre last year, even turned up to help switch on the lights. This year the council said it is planning a similar event.

Cllr Sian Timoney, the council's executive member for regeneration, said: "Lighting up Luton has always been a very successful and happy family event for the town, attracting thousands of shoppers and visitors."

The council is also asking businesses to get involved with sponsorship and promotional opportunities, including Christmas trees, craft stands, choir competitions, and the chance to have a 'strong presence at the evening switch on event'.

"As well as celebrating Christmas, it's a superb opportunity for local businesses to raise their profile by supporting such an exciting event," added Councillor Timoney.

When it comes to visiting Paris says Steve Lowe, non, je ne regrette rien

TRAVEL REVIEW

I LOVE Paris. . . well anytime actually. It was the first foreign city I visited and still holds that charm and attraction as something 'other'.

Paris is different and sitting at a café on a boulevard watching the world go by is one of life's joys.

Another these days is actually getting there. Catching the train to St Pancras and climbing on a Eurostar is in itself a wonderful experience.

Travelling in style from one great railway station in the heart of London to another in the heart of Paris beats airports and flying any day.

We stayed in Montmartre, in a hotel we had used before.

It sits in a very pretty square, next to what was Picasso's first studio, and just below the throbbing Place du Tertre and the majestic Sacre Coeur. How romantic is that?

On our first afternoon we followed a walk suggested in our guidebook, which took us round Montmartre to view its, sometimes strange, sights and to where artists had once lived.

I still find it amazing that in the late nineteenth century most of the world's greatest Impressionist and Post-Impressionist painters lived cheek by jowl in the once rather seedy village on the edge of Paris.

To keep up the theme, the next day took us to the Musée d'Orsay, which houses many Impressionist masterpieces. The building, once a railway station, is itself a masterpiece.

At one time the good burghers of Paris were going to demolish it, which just shows we are not the only ones to elect architectural vandals into office.

For the rest of the time we just wandered the streets of Paris – the Rue de Rivoli, the Pompidou Centre, the Notre Dame, the Latin Quarter – interspersed with coffee, cakes and beers in the cafes. Bliss. The present Mrs Lowe did have one surprise for me. She had booked tickets for a performance at the Au Lapin Agile.

MAKING AN IMPRESSION: Inside Musée d'Orsay which holds many masterpieces

This is a small, rustic looking house in Montmartre, which since the mid-nineteenth century has been the venue for nightly cabaret.

We booked a table, which turned out to be two stools on a long bench, where we were served glasses of red wine with cherries in them.

The cabaret was a series of songs by a group of slightly disheveled, anarchic looking Parisian singers. It was an interesting evening, although not quite what I had expected.

So close to the Gare du Nord is Montmartre, we decided to walk back to the station in the morning sunshine.

Time for another coffee, another cake and when we arrived another beer looking on the façade of the station.

One small point on a great break is that the departure lounge, to use airport speak, in Paris is not quite big enough for all the people travelling.

Eurostar is a victim of its own success.

But Paris is still a wondrous city, and just a very comfortable stone's throw away.

Take it easy with The Illegal Eagles at the Grove on Friday night

LIVE MUSIC

The Illegal Eagles
The Grove Theatre
Friday, October 31, 7.30pm, £22.50/£24.50

THE Illegal Eagles bring their acclaimed tribute show to American rock superstars The Eagles to the Grove on Friday.

Regarded by many as the world's number one Eagles' tribute act, they have earned their reputation through tight harmonies and acute attention to detail.

The classic line-up of Phil Aldridge, Keith Attack, Al Vosper and Darin Murphy – the founder members of the Illegal Eagles – was finally completed with the additions of Garreth Hicklin (pictured) and Greg Webb.

Garreth's and Greg's ability to capture the emotion of the Don Henley vocal delivery has resulted in critical and audience acclaim.

This tight-knit unit has been thrilling audiences nationwide and looks forward once again to shows in Europe, the Middle and Far East.

The show will feature all the classic songs of The Eagles including Hotel California, The Last Resort, Life in the Fast Lane, Tequila Sunrise, One of These Nights, Lyin' Eyes, New Kid in Town, Take it to the Limit, Rocky Mountain Way, Witchy Woman, Heartache Tonight and songs from "The Long Road out of Eden".

In 1980 the Eagles took a '14-year vacation' and returned with the now classic album "Hell Freezes Over". The Illegal Eagles, having no intention of taking any time off, are back and rocking audiences after 17 years.

You can book tickets at www.grovetheatre.co.uk although availability is now limited for this show.

Spooky treats for Halloween

HALLOWEEN

Halloween Events

Across Luton
Tuesday October 28-Friday 31

WITH HALLOWEEN and half term week coinciding this year, there are a number of events for people of all ages across Luton.

Put on by Luton Culture, there is plenty to keep the kids entertained and also enough to appeal to adults.

Tuesday and Wednesday will see a children's pumpkin carving event at Wardown Park Museum.

Entry is £5 and will cover a pumpkin and use of carving tools.

All children must be accompanied by an adult and it is recommended that you book in advance to avoid disappointment.

There will be two sessions on both days, running from 11am-1pm and 2pm-4pm.

On Thursday, there will be a free 'House of Horror,' again at Wardown Park Museum for 14-18 year olds.

Presented by Luton Culture's youth forum, it will feature a number of spooky events before finishing with a disco.

Something more suited for adults is 'Dead Civilised,' which will run from 7-10pm on Halloween itself, Friday.

You can celebrate All Hallows' Eve in the old Victorian house, Wardown Park Museum.

The museum's very own ghost story, the Grey Lady, will be told as you are taken on a guided tour of the building, which was used as an army hospital in WW1.

And you can find out about gruesome torture methods that have been used throughout British history!

There will be a chance to create your own pumpkin carving master piece and handle a taxidermy collection of stuffed critters.

Tickets cost £10 but include a wine, beer or a soft drink.

The event is for ages 16+.

Also on Friday, Stockwood Park Discovery Centre will host a day of activities from 11am-4pm. Entry is free, but taking part in activities may be charged.

Take part in games such as apple bobbing and make something creepy to take home!

Acclaimed comic Djalili makes stop at Grove on tour

COMEDY

OMID DJALILI: IRANALAMADINGDONG

The Grove Theatre
Friday, November 7

KNOWN best for his appearances on BBC TV shows such as Have I Got News For You and his own self-titled programme, Omid Djalili is back with a new tour, which is making a stop in Dunstable.

The British-Iranian's tour comes following a sell-out four week West End residency and a sold-out season at the Edinburgh Festival.

A firm favourite with his legendary performances, Omid's stand-up awards include Time Out Award and EMMA Award for Best Stand Up and nominated for the South Bank Award.

He first made an impression during his debut at Edinburgh Festival in 1995 and he has been a mainstay ever since, going from strength-to-strength, leading to a number of guest spots on TV panel and talk shows including Conan O'Brien in America.

A man of many talents, Omid was the winner of the Best Actor award for his lead performance in The Infidel at the Turin Film Festival, won the previous year by Bill Murray.

The Infidel also picked up a Loaded LAFTA award for Funniest Film and Omid was short listed for Peter Sellers Award at the London Evening Standard British Film Awards.

He has also appeared in Pirates of the Caribbean and Gladiator. However, comedy is his true calling and his has the makings of a show not to be missed. Tickets are £23.

FILM REVIEW

GONE GIRL

Rated 18, 2hr 25mins

Showing at Luton Cineworld

DAVID Fincher's 10th feature film as director, Gone Girl, marks another triumph with this dark and twisted effort.

The film is based upon the 2012 best-selling book of the same name by Gillian Flynn, which starts with the disappearance of the seemingly happily married Amy and the efforts of her husband Nick to try to find her - while juggling being the primary suspect in her disappearance.

The revealing of Amy's fate less than halfway into the film opens a whole new plotline with a battle between Nick and the police in revealing to the world what actually happened to his wife.

Even more shocking plot-twists take this film into a much darker realm, in typical Fincher fashion, and I found myself gripped for the entire two and a half hours.

A masterstroke sees it jumping between two time frames, told separately by Amy and Nick, with neither particularly convincing, keeping you guessing throughout.

While it may be on the long side, the film flies by due to the direction and plot, but also the chemistry between the cast members.

Superbly acted from the lead pair of Ben Affleck (Nick) and Rosamund

Pike (Amy) down to the smallest role, it is a thrilling and enthralling affair, if not disturbing at times.

Fincher teams up once again with Trent Reznor and Atticus Ross, after their success composing the scores for his previous efforts, The Social Network and The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo to great effect, creating a subtle yet chilling feel in the background which perfectly complements the suspense and feel of general unease you feel at times watching the film.

All-in-all, this disturbing tale of twists and deception is a riveting success and one to keep an eye on come the Academy Awards.

However, it's definitely not one for the faint-hearted.

Heaven 17 and Blancmange revive the 80s

TWO of the UK's top synthesiser bands from the 1980s are coming to Bedfordshire.

Heaven 17 and Blancmange will share the bill at Bedford Corn Exchange on Friday, November 7.

Heaven 17 produced top five hits Temptation and Come Live With Me.

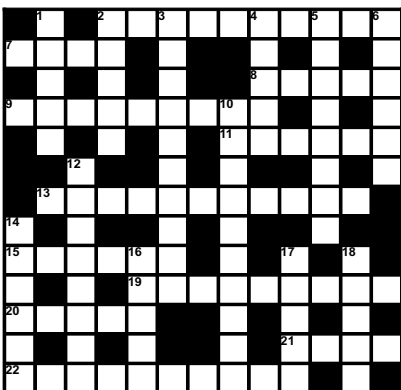

Front man Glenn Gregory said: "Heaven 17 and Blancmange are a marriage made in Heaven... which is better than a marriage made in Blancmange (I think)! The fans will have a night to remember."

Blancmange have recently recorded a new studio album which they'll be releasing early next year.

Their most recent album is Happy Families Too, which they released earlier this year. The album is a re-imagined version of their 1982 Happy Families debut and includes re-recorded classics such as I Can't Explain, Living On The Ceiling and Waves as well as remixes by Vince Clarke and Computer.

Tickets are £22.50 and can be booked by visiting www.bedfordcornexchange.co.uk

Child Development CentreSenior Teacher of the Deaf*UPS+2SEN+TLR2*Ref: P001369

As a Senior Teacher of the Deaf, you'll play an important role in our team and in the lives of local Hearing Impaired (HI) children. Your main task will be to monitor and assess HI children on your caseload and to prioritise early interventions.

To join us, you must be a well organised and qualified teacher (certificate/degree/PGCE). You'll have a recognised Teacher of the Deaf qualification with a CACDP stage, a sign language qualification and previous experience of supporting children with HI. Thanks to this background, you'll know how hearing impairments can affect a child's cognitive development and how to assess language and learning needs. You'll also be used to using audiological equipment (e.g. hearing aids, cochlear implants, soundfield systems). Crucially, you're able to give HI pupils social support by delivering deaf awareness training to those around them. You'll combine all this with broad knowledge of Key Stage 1 and 2, the SEN Code of Practice and a proven ability to lead a team.

Local Authority Notices

Luton Borough Council
THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (LEAGRAVE ROAD)
(TEMPORARY ROAD CLOSURE) ORDER 2014

NOTICE is hereby given that on 20th October 2014 Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, made the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (as amended).

The Order will come into operation 19th January 2015 and cease operation after a period of 1 month or when the proposed works have been completed. Specific times and dates will be signed locally. The Order will therefore be in operation when signs are displayed.

The effect of the Order will allow the Council to close to traffic the road and length of road in the Schedule below. The Order is intended to create a window for the works to be done and it is anticipated that the works will be completed over a period within the date described as above.

The purpose of the Order is to enable railway bridge safety examination works to be carried out.
Access will be maintained as best as possible to properties where this may be done safely whilst such works are being carried out and diversions for traffic will be marked by signs.

SCHEDULE

ROAD	LENGTH OF ROAD	TIMES
Leagrave Road.	From its junction with Althorpe Road to its roundabout junction with Selbourne Road.	From 23.00 hours to 05.00 hours.

INSIDE THE VOLKSWAGEN PASSAT

The Volkswagen Passat really hits the ground running in version eight. More spacious and stylish with a range of economical diesel engines and an all-wheel drive 240PS flagship, the Passat builds in a host of high-tech features but still majors on ride quality and cabin refinement.

The difficulty in attracting buyers away from the likes of BMW and Audi is that you need your product to offer all the attractions of a BMW and Audi but at a more competitive price. That includes looking as expensive as these brands, which is something the Passat has often struggled to achieve. Not any more. At least not from the outside, where the latest Passat looks sleek, chiselled and polished, with head and tail lights that emphasise the car's width.

In fact, the latest car is a touch shorter but both lower and wider than before and with 79mm more built into the wheelbase, there's more space in the cabin. The dashboard is a good deal more set-square than before, although Volkswagen would probably call it 'architectural'. It now features a big central screen and a set of optional digital 'virtual' dials. The seats, as in most Volkswagens, initially feel unyielding but are supremely comfortable over longer distances. Three adults can fit in the back too. The boot measures an enormous 586-litres (up from 565) while the estate gets even more, with 650-litres available under the tonneau (up from 603).

HATTERSLEAGUE TWO
LUTON TOWN
NORTHAMPTON TOWN1
0BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

LUTON left it late to conjure up the one magic moment that boss John Still believes his side are capable of as substitute Luke Guttridge netted in the 90th minute against former side Northampton to lift the Hatters to the top of League Two.

There had been precious little quality before that until on-loan right back Michael Harriman – who was one of the few to impress and surely deserves to extend his stay beyond next month – picked out the midfielder who expertly rounded Ben Tozer with one sublime touch before slamming under the dive of keeper Jordan Archer. It ensured a dramatic seventh straight victory to accompany a seventh clean sheet of the campaign, largely courtesy of a calm and commanding performance by skipper Steve McNulty.

The result will be one to savour but, against a Cobblers side that had not won on their four previous outings and offered just as little in attack, more was expected from the division's form team than the one shot on target the hosts managed in the 89 minutes leading up to the winner.

It was certainly not what this term's first five-figure sell-out crowd had come to Kenilworth Road to see so it won't be a surprise if yesterday's collective dip in attacking invention ensures a number of changes for next weekend's trip to Exeter, with Guttridge now deserving of his opportunity after biding his time all term.

Assistant coach Terry Harris said afterwards:

"We'd be lying to say it's not nice to be top of the league, but I would rather be top on May 6 or whenever it is than October 25, but it's nice and we're just delighted, as there's a full house, to be able to send them away with a win.

"We were saying with 20 minutes to go, 'shall we change our shape?'

"And fair shout to John, he said, 'let's be bold' and we just tucked Gutts into the left channel, pushed Cully up front into a front two and it worked. We got our just rewards.

"It was a tough game; they're a big, strong organised side. Did we play well? No. Did we make many chances? No. But we played like Luton.

"We know every game is going to be difficult." Alex Lawless was the only change to the starting XI that had beaten Dagenham & Redbridge 3-1 and, after his perfect hat-trick in that mid-week victory, Mark Cullen almost quickly added his sixth in four games. A timely last-

Luton come from behind to win at Newlands

LUTON RFC made it three home wins on the bounce at Newlands yesterday, and three out of four in London One North, as they made a remarkable comeback to beat Thurrock 31-28 having trailed their guests 28-7 at the interval.

A Stuart Tompkinson try was all Luton had to show for the first 40 minutes as the visitors proved to be more clinical with their first-half possession.

"We didn't start well," said Luton's club secretary Richard Bath, speaking after the game.

"They managed the game better than us early on, their nine and ten really dictated the pace."

In the second half, Jonathan Wright scored Luton's second try, converted by Rik Hobbs, to which Tesh Edwards added a third, this time not converted. Karl Roddell scored Luton's bonus-point try with just under ten minutes to play, and Sean Meddeman put Luton 29-28 up with Luton's fifth try. Hobbs converted to complete the scoring.

"It was a tight finish to a close game," added Bath. "A great result."

In Midlands 2 East South Dunstablians were beaten 28-11 on the road to Market Harborough, while in Midlands 3 East South Stockwood Park narrowly lost 24-22 at Bedford Queens.

Leading 19-17 at the half-time turn around, Stockwood had every right to fancy themselves in the second period.

"We had the wind on our backs and the sun behind us," said Park President John Humphries. "We didn't make the conditions work for us."

Steve Pollock converted his own try to register Park's first points of the afternoon, to which skipper Jamie Hoque added a second try, converted by Pollock.

Trevor Fowler put Park 19-17 ahead and Pollock added three points from a penalty only for Queens to score a converted try late on to win.

ditch challenge by Gregor Robertson, after the striker had raced into the box, put paid to that and the hitman was rarely seen again.

Much as it was in their last outing, it was the visitors that enjoyed the better of the early exchanges without causing any panic in the Luton ranks.

Cullen and Andy Drury were both off target before Mark Tyler was well placed to gobble up the Cobblers' first chance, 25 minutes in, when John-Joe O'Toole beat McNulty on the rare occasion in the air. But that was as adventurous as either side dared be.

Pelly Ruddock Mpanzu, who had been below par and was then chopped down just before the break, was replaced by Paul Benson with seconds to go while Nathan Doyle made way for Jim Stevenson for the start of the second period.

Still Luton laboured and 12 minutes after the restart should have been behind when Enda Stevens threaded in Alex Nicholls, but Tyler was quick off his line to smother.

Guttridge registered Luton's first shot on target moments after coming on and was bundled over in the penalty area with referee Darren Sheldrake unmoved.

He made his mark though with his first league goal of the season and, after so much frustrating time spent injured, threw himself into a cheeky knee slide celebration in front of the dejected Northampton fans that once used to chant his name.

Luton Town – Tyler, Smith, McNulty, Lawless (Guttridge, 61), Drury, Griffiths, Cullen, Ruddock Mpanzu (Benson, 45), Harriman, Doyle (Stevenson, 45), Wilkinson Unused subs: Lacey, Wall, Justham, Walker.

Northampton Town – Archer, O'Toole (Hackett, 76), Tozer, Nicholls (Toney, 64), Robertson, Ravenhill, D'Ath, Mohamed, Byrom, Stevens, Cresswell Unused subs: Duke, Alfei, Langmead, Sinclair, Moyo.

AIR KICK: Luton man Jim Stevenson

Dunstable Town's winless streak continues at Burnham

BY MATT DESAI

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

DUNSTABLE Town stretched their winless run to five games as they lost 2-0 away to Burnham in the Southern Premier League on Saturday.

The Blues actually began the game brighter than their opponents, 16 places below them in the league, and should have taken the lead through Nick Beasant, but his effort hit the post.

Shortly after, the visitors were punished, as forward Nicke Kabamba buried for Burnham to give them a sixth minute lead, cleverly hooking home following a short corner.

The hosts, buoyed by their goal, continued to look the more threatening, and but for the upright could have doubled the scoreline moments later, before Ryan Plowright came to the Duns' rescue by clearing off the line.

After the interval the visitors settled down again and pressed for an equaliser, but after failing to create too many chances, were finally hit on the counter attack, and the menacing Kabamba doubled his and his side's tally when he skipped through the Dunstable defence and finished coolly.

The hosts began to cruise, seeing the game out comfortably and containing the rare forays forward from the opposition, and Kabamba will be disappointed not to have sealed his hat-trick.

The striker broke clear with only the goalkeeper to beat, but a mix up with his feet caused him to fluff his lines, and unfortunately he ended up leaving the field injured.

For Dunstable, though, it was a much sorrier afternoon, the scoreline could have been far worse, and much improvement is required ahead of the visit of Histon on Tuesday.

Meanwhile, in the Southern League Division One Central, Barton Rovers were pegged back from a goal ahead to draw 1-1 with Chalfont St Peter at Sharpenhoe Road.

Keshi Anderson almost gave Rovers an early lead after a clever turn and strike, but his effort came back off the post.

Midway through the half the hosts got their goal though, and it was no surprise Anderson was involved.

His ball across the box found Connor Vincent in space, who rasped home a volley, leaving the 'keeper with no chance.

The Saints restored parity just four minutes before the break though, and after an even second half that included a late Rovers penalty claim, a draw was deemed a fair result.

Celebration was 'nothing personal' says Guttridge

HATTERS

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

LUKE Guttridge admitted to "mixed emotions" over his celebration in front of the Northampton fans after netting a dramatic 90th minute winner against his former side to send Luton to the top of League Two.

The Hatters, with six straight wins prior to yesterday, had been well below par against the out-of-form Cobblers and it wasn't until the midfielder came on in the 61st minute and took aim unsuccessfully with his first touch that the hosts even registered a shot on target.

But Guttridge made up for a personally frustrating campaign, in which a troubling foot injury had seen him play one minute of the previous five games, by ramming home the only goal in front of the travelling away support.

He leapt into a jubilant knee slide yards away from them but said afterwards: "I've got mixed emotions with my celebration; I know I'm going to get a lot of stick for it, not that the Northampton fans will care at all.

"It was nothing personal against them it's just that it's been a very tough couple of months for me.

"Even when I was playing it has been a hard season for me and I suppose it was just the euphoria of grabbing the winner.

"I told myself don't celebrate but I just had so much frustration in my body that I had to let it out. I do sincerely apologise but that's football and I play for Luton now."

It was the third week in a row that a former Cobblers has scored against the Sixfields side and Guttridge revealed afterwards: "I had a lot of old friends text me that I'd probably end up scoring the winner. I didn't think I would to be honest but I'm delighted to get on the pitch and get us the goal that gets us the win.

"I didn't realise it was the 90th minute. It just seems to be the way it goes in football so I'm delighted."

Michael Harriman, who provided the assist for Guttridge's goal, admitted after the club's seventh straight victory that he would be keen to extend his loan beyond the Exeter away game on Saturday.

He said: "I want to be here as long as I can. We haven't discussed it yet but hopefully I'll be here for far longer. I'm not looking to go anywhere else."
